EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

In Claim 9(Patent Claim 7),

On line 4: before "said", insert --the portions adjacent to--.

In Claim 11(Patent Claim 9),

On line 4: change "barrier cuff" to --top layer--;

On line 5: change "back" to --liquid retentive--.

2. Claims 1-3, 6-11, 15 and 19-26 are allowed.

3. Claims 4-5, 12-14, 16-18 and 27 were previously cancelled.

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The amendments to claims 9 and 11 were made to correct obvious typographical errors and bring the claim language into conformity with the other language in each of the claims. See also paragraph 8 of the last Office Action of 3-1-04. Additionally, the claim language "integrally folding" is interpreted in light of the Figures and, e.g., the first full paragraph on page 5, i.e. the absorbent sheet is overlaid by the top layer and they are folded as a unit, i.e. the folds in the top layer correspond to the folds in the absorbent sheet and vice versa. “Folding” is interpreted in light of its customary, i.e. dictionary, definition, i.e. “To bend over or double up so that one part lies on another”. “Cuff” is also interpreted in light of its customary, i.e. dictionary, definition, i.e. “The turned up fold at the bottom of a trouser leg”, and the specification, i.e. interpreted as a turned up fold. The invention of the claims is shown in Figures 8, 14 and 15. Additionally see page 2, lines 1-5, page 6, the first full paragraph, page 10, the third full paragraph, and page 18, fourth full paragraph. Attention is reinvited to paragraph 9 of the 3-1-04 Office Action. It is further noted that in the GB ‘892 reference to Jackson the barriers are formed by heat seal lines 13.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Karin M. Reichle whose telephone number is (571) 272-4936. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday.
